AGNESE on the move

CULTURAL, EXPERIENTIAL, AND FOOD TRIPS

Agnese Sabatini

Born in Tuscany and adopted by Milan (Italy), I've studied as a translator and interpreter, and I've worked as a SEO content writer. Today, I am a Life&Business Coach and a tour leader.

I love reading and walking, I'm a total foodie and I can never stand still for too long! Traveling is one of my main reasons for living: what truly lights me up is curiosity, a love for learning about new cultures, and the chance to discover, every single time, that we are all the same and all different in this world.
